

RESME

On the Borders between Residential Child Care and Mental Health Treatment

Expected impacts of the project:

- to increase the multi-professional competences of practitioners' through education
- to increase multi-professional collaboration and participants' knowledge of each other's professional competences
- to exchange the good multi-professional work practices on the borders around Europe
- to create an international European Expertise Consortium to bring up these issues on discussion around Europe

Outcomes:

- Educational manual
- Joint multi-professional continuing education course (15 ETCS)
- Publication
- RESME European Expertise Consortium

Target group:

practitioners working in the fields of residential child care and mental health treatment

Project partners:

Turku University of Applied Sciences coordinator

University of Oviedo

Hamburg University of Applied Sciences

Mykolas Romeris University

VIA University College

University of Edinburgh

Kibble Education and Care Centre

Lifelong Learning Programme

WWW.RESME.EU