Outcomes:
- Educational manual
- Joint multi-professional continuing education course (15 ETCS)
- Publication
- RESME European Expertise Consortium

Expected impacts of the project:
- to increase the multi-professional competences of practitioners’ through education
- to increase multi-professional collaboration and participants’ knowledge of each other’s professional competences
- to exchange the good multi-professional work practices on the borders around Europe
- to create an international European Expertise Consortium to bring up these issues on discussion around Europe

Target group:
practitioners working in the fields of residential child care and mental health treatment

Project partners:
- Turku University of Applied Sciences coordinator
- University of Oviedo
- Hamburg University of Applied Sciences
- Mykolas Romeris University
- VIA University College
- University of Edinburgh
- Kibble Education and Care Centre

RESME On the Borders between Residential Child Care and Mental Health Treatment

WWW.RESME.EU